VISIONSTATE

- Visionstate IoT Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Visionstate Corp.
- The Company's core product is WANDA™ - a customized touch screen IoT solution.
- There are now ~160 devices in the market globally. The number of locations in 2019 is nearly double of that in 2017.
- Cellular-based version launched via TELUS' LTE-M network eliminating the need for Wi-Fi in the area of installation.

“ I won't eat in a restaurant with filthy bathrooms. This isn't a hard call. They let you see the bathrooms. If the restaurant can't be bothered to keep those clean, then just imagine what their refrigeration and work spaces look like. ”

— Anthony Bourdain

And this applies not only to washrooms, but to all public facilities. Here is where WANDA™ steps in!

WANDA™ is unique in the marketplace, the first device of its kind to replace old-fashioned paper-based reporting.
